

Monday 14th September

The day started with other financial matters. George Pyrich (Finance Director) addressed the meeting in relation to the outstanding fees of some Countries. He announced that interest rates will be applied to these fees as agreed by previous Congresses. It was agreed that the Finance Director will inform the Executive Board of those countries who fail to pay their outstanding fees. The ultimate penalty for non-payment will be expulsion from the ICCF. Congress also approved the proposal by the Finance Director to alter the banking arrangements which currently exist.
